

Leadership New Mexico Core Program

THE PROGRAM

Leadership New Mexico's Core Program is a 10-month commitment. Each session is designed to understand and address current issues in New Mexico. Each session features speakers who are specialized in their fields. The process offers an opportunity for discussion, inquiry, analysis, and development of solutions for the most pressing issues facing our the state.

Core Program sessions expose participants to different regions and local issues. They experience the unique culture, weaving a broad-based and comprehensive understanding of a multicultural and diverse state.

Each program includes a 2-day retreat and orientation, followed by educational sessions on topics such as:

- Health and Human Services
- Economic Development
- Education
- Environment and Natural Resources
- Government, Crime and Justice, and Leadership
